CAN DIANA BAY WIN THE DERBY?

MR. DUNBAR'S CANDIDATE SHOWS EXCELLENT
FORM OVER WEEK-END.COMMENTS ON LATEST TRAINING GALLOPS.

[By "MORNING DEW."]

Diana Bay, the "dark horse," who had done nothing very startling in the training gallops until Saturday, surprised everyone on Sunday morning when he put in an excellent gallop over a mile and three-quarters, finishing hard held in 29.2 seconds.

The pony started very slowly, as his time for the mile and half given below will show. The first quarter of his last 1½ miles was 44 seconds, this being followed by a quarter of 39. After this he registered two quarters of 34 each, followed by a quarter in 32, and finishing in 29.2—hard held, be it noted! The last half-mile, it will be seen, was covered in 1.01.2, and the last three-quarters in 1.35.2, the last mile being done in 2.08.2. This is easily the best mile gallop among the Derby griffins of the season, the more notable because the pony finished strong and full of running.

The Tiger, who did so poorly during mid-week, somewhat redeemed himself on Saturday, going over a slow two miles and finishing in 30.4 seconds. The first mile was so slow that he was not "clocked," but his last mile will be found below.

Windsor Stag and Wisdom Stag, two of Mr. Chan Tin Sien's Derby Candidates, both performed well, the last-named being particularly convincing. He is at the present moment considered the most serious claimant for Derby honours.

I am afraid King's Bounty's chances in the classic event are gone. He was all out on Saturday, and returned the time given below for a mile and a half.

African Eve showed the same times as King's Bounty, but he had plenty in hand at the end, and I place him in a much higher category than the Dynasty representative.

The best gallop on Saturday was that of Messrs. Hynes and Mackie's Peppercorn, which went over a mile and a half in 3 minutes 21.1 seconds and finished in 31.3 seconds. Peppercorn's time is the best so far for the mile and a half, and his finish time is better than The Tiger's and Wisdom Stag's when these two ponies returned the same time for the Derby distance. Peppercorn, however, was "slugging" all the way, and had to be ridden from the word "go." Peppercorn went over a mile in 2.17, and was again out on the course on Sunday, when he was sent over a quarter, finishing inside 30.

A number of Shanghai jockeys, including Mr. Knoll, who racegoers will recall, was one of the best jockeys available a few years ago; was seen at the course. Against the names of the ponies in their trials over the week-end, full details of which will be found below:—

GENEROUS ODDS.

HOW THE DERBY BETTING
IS GOING.

SPORTS CLUB SWEEPS.

[By "MORNING DEW."]

The Sports Club held the first of their selling sweeps on Saturday, and there was a large attendance of owners and jockeys as well as their friends in the Club.

In the Hong Kong Derby Wisdom Stag fetched the highest price, the odds figuring out at about 2 to 1. African Eve, Diana Bay, Peppercorn, The Tiger, and King's Bounty all fetched low prices, the odds being very generous to those who bought in these ponies. An interesting sale was that of King's Colour, who was bought in at odds which figure slightly better than 9 to 1, and might be an indication of the public's estimation of the strength of the Dynasty stable, for clearly King's Colour is only the "second string" after King's Bounty.

Mr. Ho Koin Tong and the Jardine Stables fetched low prices, and Gay Caballero and Silver Queen went very cheaply as well, while Orlando went to the drawer.

In the Champions, Apollo was the "great bet" of the night, one party offering $1,700 to win $300, which is 17.2 against. It is not likely that Apollo will pay such a small return at the pari-mutuel, as with the excellent form shown by King's Courier, Diana Bay, Royal Flush, Sitting Bull, President Hall, and a few others, Apollo will at least pay a fifty per cent. return to his backers, and probably more.

In the Valley Stakes, Shanghai Beau and Baby Face fetched good prices. Peashop, which is out at Fanning trying to forget all about racing, fetched a good price, although the animal, at the time of writing, is unfit.

Iron Blood, Grenadier, Tango, Tonbridge, Peter Quincey and Bridge Hall, all mentioned as the best subs in training, in Saturday's issue of this paper, fetched good prices, particularly Tonbridge, who will have the assistance of Mr. Haimovitch in the saddle on race-day.

Further drawings at the Sports Club will be held to-night, on Wednesday, and on Friday of this week, the Valleys, the Derby, and the Champions being on the card.

GREAT BRITAIN AND THE EAST.

The colossal conflict between the greatest civilised Powers of the West undoubtedly changed the attitude of the East towards our so-called civilisation. The extension of the war over half the habitable globe brought all men down to a common level. What did the vaunted progress of the West stand for in a four years' struggle were possible at the beginning of the twentieth century? "Surely we can manage our affairs as well as that," we can imagine the Oriental saying. Such thoughts, while diminishing the respect which, however grudgingly, the East felt for the West, did not affect his attitude of mind toward European methods of administration, but rather made the Oriental feel that he was not and ready to imitate them.

These sentiments meant, in a word, the downfall of despotism and the desire to replace it by constitutional and representative government. The history of the East has hitherto been the story of despotic power, and I am sufficiently conservative to believe that, in the East at any rate, government by a good despot is the best form of rule; but the East has been stirred to its foundations by new ideals, and it now desires Western institutions, if possible without Western guidance.

They hope to find freedom and salvation by copying the, to them totally foreign, system of government painfully evolved over centuries of struggle and debate, as practiced by the masters of whom they would be rid. To them the system is artificial, and the new situation is apt to bring to the front two types of individuals; one clinging to national tradition and abominating all that is Western, the other throwing tradition to the winds and hating only the Westerner, whose methods he would adopt. Many of the second type of course, desire to reduce the "distance" which has hitherto been so strongly felt between Asia and Europe. It is, however, precisely such elements of the population who most easily lose their respect for European culture and are most ready to adopt only those features of that culture which they can employ against the European.

POSSIBLE MERGERS IN TYRE TRADE.

DEVELOPMENTS EXPECTED IN AMERICA.

(United Press.)

New York, Feb. 8. As a result of the fact that Mr. Cyrus Eaton has acquired control of the Goodyear Rubber Co., Wall Street expects to see far-reaching mergers.

The first of these will probably be with the Seiberling Rubber Co., having assets of $9,000,000, and possibly the U.S. Rubber Co. in which Mr. Eaton holds 35,000 shares.

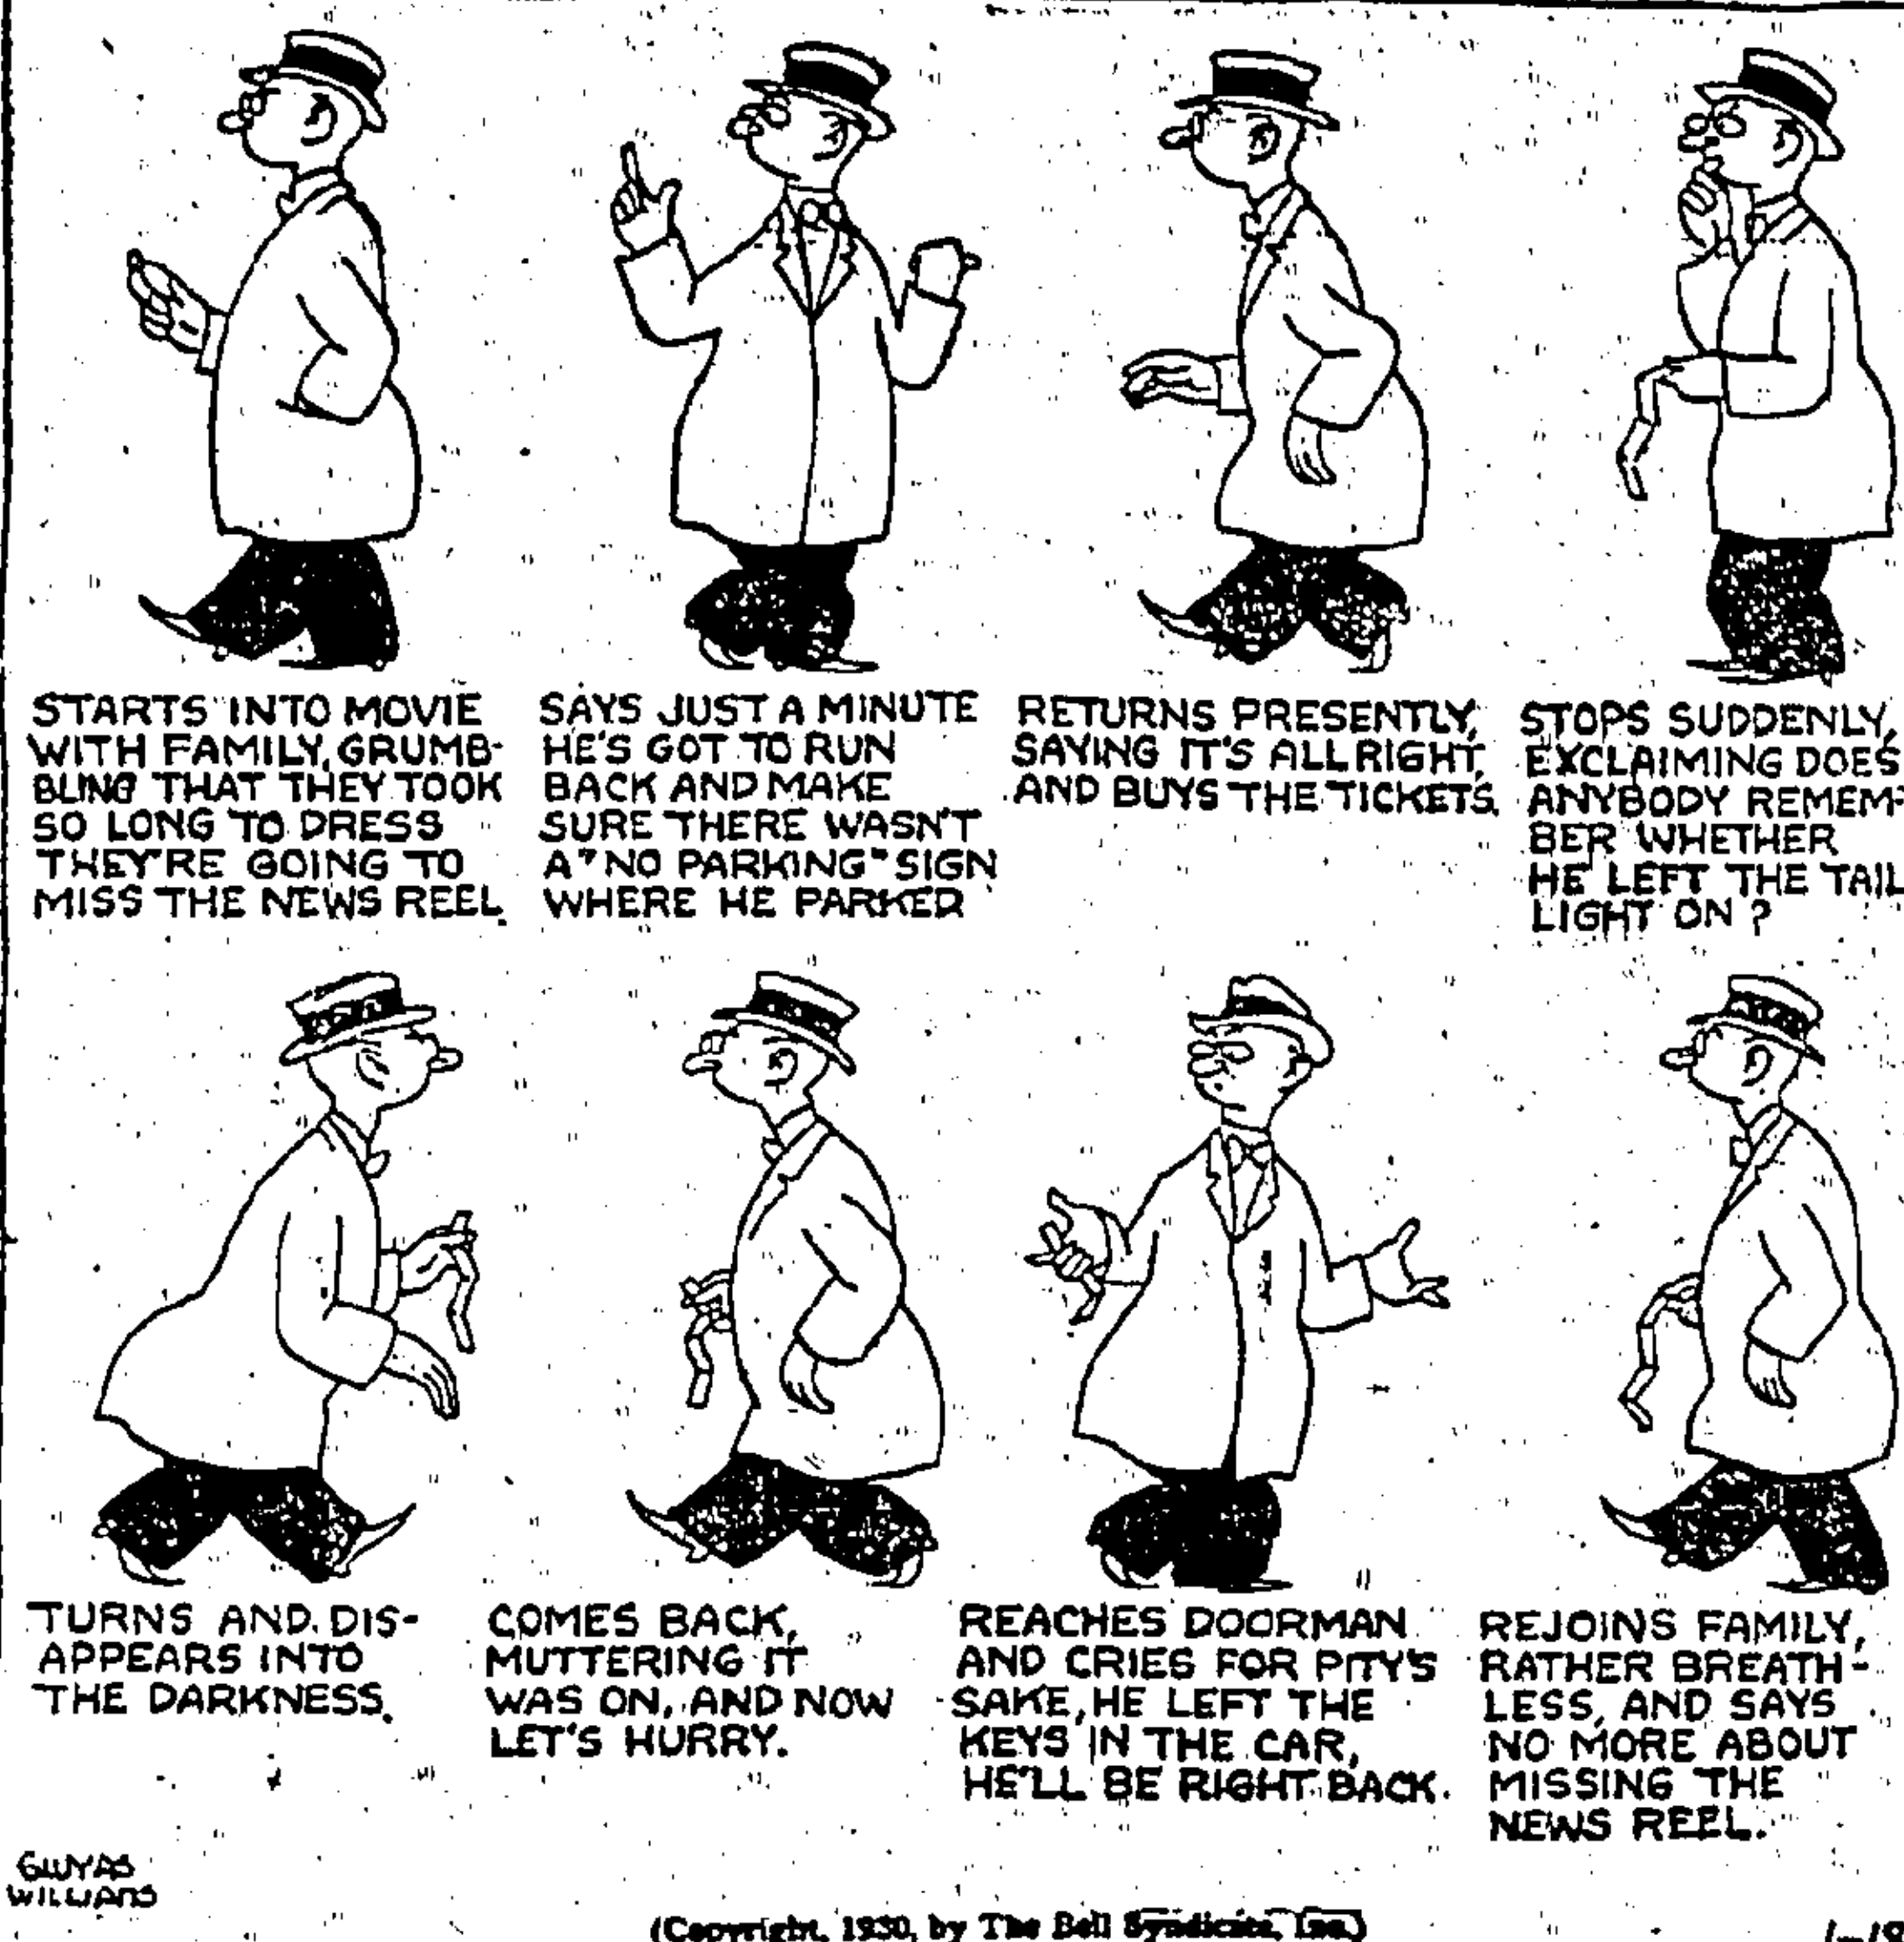

It is also pointed out that the Otis Co., a financial house in which Mr. Eaton is a partner, marketed a $60,000,000 loan for the Firestone Rubber Co. last year.

The Continental Shares Corp., which Mr. Eaton controls, owns more than 21,000 shares of Firestone common which, in the event of completion of a combination, represents assets of $375,000,000.

Such a combination would, it is believed, prove an asset toward the stabilization of an industry which is at present hampered by fierce competition driving down prices and hurting all existing companies.

THE WOMAN'S CORNER.

HORS-D'ŒUVRES CAN BE AN ECONOMY.

According to all the dictionaries, dietitians, and authorities on cooking, a hors-d'œuvre is an "appetizer," an "introduction to a meal," something that will "whet the appetite and not destroy it." Well, the fitting retort seems to be, "It all depends on the hors-d'œuvre."

Here is the true story of a countryman (it is, perhaps, kinder not to say which country he came from) who came up to London and went into a smart restaurant for a meal. He saw on the menu "Hors-d'œuvre 1s." and ordered it. It happens that this particular restaurant makes a special feature of its hors-d'œuvres.

The whole army was spread out before our countryman, who took a generous helping from each dish and thoroughly enjoyed himself. But that hors-d'œuvre, far from whetting his appetite, destroyed it entirely, so he asked for his bill, paid his 1s., and went out, perfectly satisfied!

There will be plenty of people who will sympathize with the countryman, for I have heard them say, "If only one could make a meal off hors-d'œuvre and bread and butter! There's such a variety of them, and everything is so tempting that it seems a pity to have to be satisfied with just a nibble. One day I'm going to make a special hors-d'œuvre all for myself and just have that and nothing else for dinner."

From the Larder Shelf.

Well, it's an idea worth bearing in mind. The housewife or bachelor girl who lurches or dines alone can solve the eating problem once in a way by making a variety of hors-d'œuvres, for an informal Sunday night supper, or when unexpected visitors turn up such a meal would be sufficient for the occasion.

Every good house wife keeps on her pantry shelves the main ingredients for a good hors-d'œuvre—a tin of sardines, bottled anchovies, a tin of shrimps or prawns, capers, pickles of various kinds—bottled peas and diced vegetables—and the contents of the everyday vegetable basket will supply the rest—tomatoes, celery, beetroot, potatoes, carrots, radishes, spring onions (in season) and so on.

Then there are the things one can buy ready cooked from the "delicatessen" shops—liver, salami or other sausage. Hard-boiled eggs, too, make a satisfying addition to the hors-d'œuvres.

If you have any left-over vegetables, they can all be used up in the hors-d'œuvres tossed in mayonnaise.

Haricot or butter beans should be given a sprinkling of tomato sauce and added. In fact, if you have no cold cooked beans it is a good idea to use a tin of baked beans in tomato, as they are so appetizing, and most people like them.

Serve the sardines and anchovies separately. If you do not possess a hors-d'œuvre dish, you can improvise one with an ordinary large plate or meat dish, using crusts of bread to make the divisions.

Diced Vegetables.

Cut your tomato in slices and sprinkle with oil and vinegar. In another division place cut-up cold potatoes in mayonnaise; in others a few olives, shrimps or prawns in mayonnaise, sliced cucumber—pickled or sprinkled with French dressing—sliced gherkins and French capers, diced beetroot, pickled red

CHECKS AND STRIPES.

Checks and stripes are as fashionable for children's clothes as they are for their mothers wear.

SATURDAY'S SOLUTION.

Daring youth seeks paths of glory in the clouds. Zooming, diving, falling. The soaring airmen of the war. Risking death and disaster while love awaits with bated breath. The thrill of fighting. The suspense of waiting. An appeal that goes to every human heart. William A. Wellman's epic of the "Aces," more than a year at the Criterion Theatre, New York. Seen and praised by the notable airmen of the world. Hailed by leaders in every field as the greatest moving picture ever made. It's the GREAT "WINGS!"

Don't miss this thrilling picture.

HOME FOOTBALL RESULTS.

MANCHESTER CITY BEATEN IN CUP MATCH.

HULL CITY'S CONQUERS ON AWAY GROUND.

BLACKBURN FALL OUT.

A surprise in the English Cup matches on Saturday was the defeat of Manchester City on their own ground by the Second Division team Hull City. With the exception of the latter and Notts Forest who drew at Sunderland, all the junior teams were eliminated.

Aston Villa had a comfortable victory when they received Blackburn Rovers, while Sheffield Wednesday were also in great form against the visiting Bradford team. Middlesbrough's hopes were shattered by the Arsenal.

Three matches in the Scottish Cup were drawn. The Rangers beat Motherwell by five goals to two on away ground and entered the next round together with Hamilton, Partick, Hearts and St. Mirren.

Features of the League matches were the defeat of the Second Division and Southern Section leaders and Darlington's score of eight goals to one against Rotherham in the Northern Section. No change of any importance took place in the League tables.

Results cabled by Reuter and revised League tables follow:—

PROHIBITION AND POLITICS.

"WHITE MEN IN CHAINS."

GRAVE WARNING TO THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

(United Press.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7. Representative James M. Beck of Pennsylvania, former Solicitor-General of the United States, delivered a speech in the House to-day in the course of which he declared that the Republican Party is destined to follow its Whig predecessor into oblivion if it "continues to sell its soul to the fanatical 'drys' and thus become the Party of Prohibition."

Mr. Beck cited the fact that the Fugitive Slave Law was once a part of the Federal Constitution, but the attempt to make the Northern slave-catchers provoked such a revolt that Daniel Webster destroyed himself while honestly attempting to save the Union by making that section of the Constitution more obligatory.

"The result," declared Mr. Beck emphatically, "is a sinister omen to the Republican Party, even in this day of its great power."

"The party did not emancipate the slave to put the white man in the chains of an intolerant policy."

Department of Justice to Take Over From the Treasury.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9. Without a record vote, the House to-day passed the Williamson Bill transferring the work of prohibition enforcement from jurisdiction of the Treasury Department to that of the Department of Justice.

The measure leaves the industrial alcohol division in the hands of the Treasury Department, however, despite arguments by some of the "drys" that Congress must not allow one Cabinet member to dictate to another. The House defeated by 145 to 47 an amendment transferring industrial alcohol with beverage prohibition enforcement. All but three Republicans opposed this.

Under the Bill as passed, Mr. Andrew Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury, and Mr. William D. Mitchell, Attorney-General, have joint authority to prescribe regulation of the sale of industrial alcohol.

Prohibition Week in Congress.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9. Plans have been completed for the biggest "prohibition week" Congress has yet seen, next week, with a variety of measures to be considered.

The Christopherson sub-committee intends to propose an amendment to the famous Jones "five and ten law," lessening its penalties for minor violations of the prohibition act. This law has been greatly criticized because of its off-hand provision of large penitentiary terms for small offences.

By passing such an amendment, it is felt, the way will be cleared for taking up the proposal of the Wickersham Law Enforcement Commission that trial of small offenders be before Court Commissioners rather than a jury.

Liquor crimes will be divided into two classes by this arrangement, the major offences being handled by juries as heretofore, but the smaller ones being expedited and cleared out of the way with less trouble and expense.

During the forthcoming week there will also be hearings on all modification proposals in regard to prohibition enforcement. These will begin on Wednesday.

AMERICA'S TROUBLE DIAGNOSED.

"RELIGIOUS DICTATION AND POLITICAL RESTRAINT."

(United Press.)

New York, Feb. 7.

Mr. Norman Thomas, Socialist candidate for the Presidency in the last national election, to-day characterized as "fantastic" a proposal by Mr. Samuel Church to create a new Liberal Party in the United States because "the country is suffering from religious dictation and political restraint."

Mr. Church, who is president of the Carnegie Institute and has for years been known as a leading Republican and has taken part in national campaigns since 1896, said that his proposed new party would take the best planks from all existing parties.

Senate leaders have unofficially intimated that they are opposed to all prohibition reform except the Williams Bill which provides for transfer of the administration work from jurisdiction of the Treasury Department to that of the Department of Justice.

James M. Beck as Republican Candidate.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 9.

Representative James M. Beck of Pennsylvania, whose speech against prohibition in the House last Friday is being discussed all over America because of Mr. Beck's prominence as an international lawyer and a former Solicitor-General of the United States, is being mentioned as political successor to Mr. William Vare as a possible substitute candidate for the Republican Senatorial nomination for the spring primaries.

Mr. Vare will be recalled as the man whose excessive campaign expenditures resulted in action by the Senate which prevented him from taking the seat to which he had been elected.

At the present time Mr. Vare is in ill health, which in all probability will prevent him from taking up the fight again. Mr. Beck is considered to represent Mr. Vare's views, and he is believed to have given expression to the Vare opinions when he advocated repealing the Volstead Act, ignoring the Eighteenth Amendment, and throwing the whole liquor question back to the States for individual action.

LIQUOR SCANDAL IN CHICAGO.

(United Press.)

Chicago, February 10.—A federal grand jury to-day returned indictments against 31 corporations and 185 individuals on charges of diverting industrial alcohol amounting to 1,000,000 gallons annually for a period covering seven years.

The indictments charge that 297 overt acts were committed, including the application of an invention for removing essential oils after manufacturing perfumes.

How "Pre-war Whisky" is Made.

Revealing details surrounding the circumstances of the indictments returned by a federal grand jury against 31 corporations and 185 individuals on charges of diverting 1,000,000 gallons of industrial alcohol annually for a period of seven years, Government officials to-day said that much alcohol supposedly destined to render the human exterior more cheerful never reached perfume houses but instead went by fairly direct means into human interiors, contrary to law.

Such alcohol was turned over directly to prohibition violators who made it into "pre-war whisky" and sold it under guarantee to the effect that it had come "direct from England," or sometimes from Canada.

Alcohol so diverted came to a total valuation of more than $850,000,000.

Many of the companies indicted to-day are located on the West coast, including Los Angeles but with no representation from San Francisco.

Two Cases at Springfield.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 10.—A federal grand jury to-day indicted the Corn Products Co. and Fleischman's Yeast on charges of violating the federal prohibition law. No individuals were named in the indictments.

Continuing his comment of the scheme, Mr. Thomas said that Mr. Church's only concrete proposal was the abolition of the Eighteenth (Prohibition) Amendment, which is insufficient ground for such a movement.

Mr. Thomas said that any new party must be based on a strong economic and social policy.

W.C.T.U. in Arms.

EVANSTON, Ill., Feb. 7.

National headquarters of the Women's Christian Temperance Union to-day issued a strong statement opposing the Samuel Church proposal for a new Liberal Party.

The statement declared that nothing would so arouse the God-loving and God-fearing Americans as much as the formation of a Liberal Party.

"No great movement has ever been accomplished without the spirit of religion," continued the statement, which took particular offence at Mr. Church's statement that some of the churches of the United States exercise a bad influence in politics.

LOCAL & GENERAL.

The B.I. & Appear-Lima Co.'s s.s. Tilawa left Singapore for this port on the 13th instant, and is due here on the 19th instant.

It is understood, says the North China Standard, that a niece of Sir Miles Lampson is shortly coming out from England to keep house for her uncle at the British Legation: the Honourable Jean Elizabeth, Hore-Ruthven (pronounced Rivven, formerly spelt Rythven), who was born in 1893, and is a younger sister of the Countess of Carlisle, and the second daughter of the Right Hon. Major-General Lord Ruthven of Gowrie, C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O., late Colonel of the Scots Guards, and General Officer commanding the London District and the Brigade of Guards from February, 1924.

The financial integrity of various foreign "savings societies" in China will shortly come under investigation as the result of an order recently issued by the State Council jointly to the Ministry of Communications and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. The order is understood to have been issued in consequence of reports reaching the Central authorities from various local Party and Government organs, especially those in Shanghai, in which it is alleged that the majority of the so-called savings societies are actually gambling institutions in disguise, while others are said to be swindling schemes established to defraud the public.

The Bremen, it is now claimed, is not the fastest ship to cross the Atlantic. One who made the crossing in March 1918 in the British cruiser (now aircraft carrier) Courageous states that she did the trip to the United States in less than four days, which is, of course, a record. The return was almost equally speedy, and after docking it was found that the whole of the ship's bottom was corrugated because of the intense vibration caused by pounding through the seas at full steam ahead for so many hours. Possession of the "blue ribbon of the Atlantic," however, is still held by the Bremen, as the struggle for the honour is limited to liners.

Following a brief illness, Miss Maud Anderson, who was well-known in Shanghai, died on December 27 at the home of her life-long friend, Dr. Ruth Leonard, 1819, Oxford Street, Rockford, Ill., U.S.A. A native of Brookton, Mass., where she was born in 1894, Miss Anderson took up professional nursing and, while so engaged at the New England Hospital, in Boston, she made the acquaintance of Dr. Leonard, who was then a member of the hospital staff. When Dr. Leonard entered the foreign service and was assigned to Shanghai, Miss Anderson accompanied her to the Orient and remained there with her throughout her entire period in the Far East, working first at Dr. Leonard's Sanatorium and later at the Country Hospital. Three years ago, she returned to Rockford with Dr. Leonard and has been her assistant and companion ever since. Miss Anderson had dedicated her life to the profession which she had entered as a girl, and her sincerity and zeal won her broad recognition in that field. Much sympathy is extended to her mother, Mrs. Frank Tripp, and other relatives in Putnam, Conn., U.S.A.

Turning the Tables.

In Great St. Helens, there has been constructed Bishopsgate, London, what is described as "the first street turntable for motor-cars"—a movable disc which will save drivers the trouble of backing and turning in a narrow street. At a time gone on perhaps we shall get signal-boxes, too, and long troughs running down the middle of the road from which motors can pick up petrol without stopping, just like those old fashioned locomotives on the railway. Since most roads are now more unsafe than many railway lines, there is much to be said for building up the right atmosphere; the great thing will be to erect plenty of notice boards explaining that forty shillings and costs will be the official penalty exacted from all pedestrians who survive their attempt to trespass on the neighbouring track. However, if turntables are to be installed by the ratepayers, they ought not to be restricted to motorists. Children could play with them on fine Saturday afternoons, and in the small hours of the morning Bright Young People might assemble to use them as joy-wheels.

THE SUBMARINE OF THE FUTURE.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Feb. 14.

Speaking at the annual dinner of the Society of Consulting Marine Engineers, Sir J. Fortescue Flannery, Past President, prophesied that, if submarines were retained, the day would come when they would combine the qualities both of the submarine and the aeroplane.

If, however, their abolition was a step to lasting peace it would be welcomed.

ST. PETER'S MARATHON.

BRITISH SOLDIERS FINE WIN.

The Marathon Race held under the auspices of the St. Peter's Church Young Men's Club, over a course in Hong Kong on Saturday was won in fine style by Bugler J. P. White of the Somerset Light Infantry. An Indian Army runner took second place followed by Pte Gear of the K.O.S.B.

The course which was over eight miles completed in 48 minutes 15.1/8 seconds by the winner. It is probable that the local record for the distance would have been broken had the race been run over the same course as that of previous years.

Last year a British soldier won the race on the disqualification of an Indian runner who went off the course. This year however, in spite of all expectations of a Indian win, a British runner won outright. The team prize, however, went to the H.K. and S. Brigade R.A. with 43 points.

The course was as follows:—Start at Lyttleton Road (outside the hotel entrance of the Hong Kong University) along Lyttleton Road, through Park Road, then wind up Robinson Road, along the new motor road to the end of Conduit Road, then through the Conduit Viaduct until Mr. Biggar's House has been reached. Then along Pokfulam Road, down Dairy Farm Hill to point of Jubilee Road, along that road to Mount Davis Road, up Mount Davis Road to the Point of Pokfulam Road, along that road to King's College and finish at the West Gate of Hong Kong University.

The Race Described.

Fifty-six runners started and a preliminary burst separated the good runners from the "also rans," and the former, bunched well together, soon got ahead.

White, the winner, was well up in front with a cluster of Indian service men from the H.K.-Singapore Brigade in close attendance. White, however, set a strong pace and slowly drew ahead. At the end of the first two miles he was 100 yards ahead of the next man. This order was maintained to the end of the race, White slowly increasing his lead to win by about 200 yards from Sepoy Sohan who came second, in 48 minutes 15 seconds. Pte J. Gear, K.O.S.B., came in third in 51 minutes, closely followed by Yusuf Khan, of the H.K. & S. Brigade R.A.

Practically all the runners finished, and many appeared quite fresh. Mr. W. Skelton was the first St. Peter's Club member to pass the post.

Prizes Presented.

At the conclusion of the Race Mr. R. Ashton Hill of the Hong Kong University, in a short speech congratulated the winners and thanked those who had entered and all who had helped to make the race a success. He also congratulated the Club on arranging and organizing the race. He then asked Mrs. Randall, Jr. to distribute the prizes.

The Winners.

The "Nestangle" Challenge Cup and first prize (a replica of the Challenge Cup) — presented by Messrs. Nestle and Anglo-Swiss Condensed Milk Co. — Bugler J. P. White, Somerset Light Infantry.

Fourth Prize (presented by Mrs. Griggs and Miss Mow Fung) — Yusuf Khan, H.K. & S. Brigade, R.A.

Club Members, 1st Prize (presented by Wm. Thomas Tamm) — W. Skelton.

The proceedings concluded with a vote of thanks to the donors of the prizes, and to other helpers, and three cheers and a "tiger" for Mrs. Randall.

[FROM A SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.]

CANTON, Feb. 16.

No important military developments are reported regarding the Kwangsi situation. The original intention of the Canton military authorities to attack the "Iron-sides" near in Kwangsi appears to have been abandoned. General Li Yang King who is now defending Wuchow, has been ordered to move his whole force to South-Western Kwangtung.

According to the latest report the "Iron-sides," including a number of newly-recruited armed bandits, whose total number is estimated at about 14,000, have evacuated Kochow for Sunyi, some distance north.

CANTON'S APPEAL TO KWANGSI."HELP US PUT DOWN THESE REBELS."

The following appeal was made by the Canton Higher Command to the people of Kwangsi:—

"Dear Brethren of Kwangsi,—Now that the country has been unified and reconstruction has begun, only those with evil intentions would start hostilities against the Government and renew war-time suffering.

"Unexpectedly, Chang Fat Fui, Li Tsung Jen, Pei Chung Hsi and Wong Shui Hung have allied themselves in a counter-revolution movement, thereby devastating the Two Kwangs, solely for the purpose of setting themselves up as feudal rulers. Their crimes more than merit punishment by death. We, the National 8th Route Army, acting on the Government's order, have now crushed these rebels, of whom over half have been either killed or wounded. The remnants are in a sorry condition and have fled westward. Recently they plundered the people, acting like robbers. They should be exterminated without delay not only in the interests of the people of the Two Kwangs but also of the whole country.

"People of Kwangsi, if you wish to live peacefully, you must share our revolutionary task of putting down these dangerous rebels! You must give us your utmost support, with the object of securing a lasting peace and reconstruction in the Two Kwangs."

BANDITS ACTIVE.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

Owing to the withdrawal of the garrison troops to participate in the military campaign in Kwangsi, the activities of the bandits in the North River districts have been revived. It is estimated that their total number is nearly two thousand.

There are at present over 900 bandits between Yingtak and Shintwan under the notorious Wong Sai Kou, about 200 at Shuitungtou, 100 in Wailing, and about 600 on the Little North River districts.

STEAM LAUNCH FIRED AT.FOR DEIFYING BLACKMAIL GANG!

A steam launch while on her way to Shakkai (near Macao) from Canton was fired at by robbers using machine guns when passing Pakfaton on Friday. The guards on board returned the fire and the vessel was soon out of range and no one was injured. It is understood that a sum of money had been demanded by the robbers for the "protection of the vessel," but the owners refused, and this is considered to be the result of their compliance.

KWANGTUNG CEMENT FACTORY.

According to the vernacular papers, the Kwangtung Cement Factory in Canton has suspended work since Saturday last for a month. No reason has been given.

SHIPPING TROUBLE AT SWATOW.THREAT OF BOYCOTT.

One of the foreign shipping companies whose ships run between Swatow and Singapore has been the subject of a good deal of attention from officials in the former port of late, writes a Swatow correspondent to the N.C. Daily News. In December last they tried to hold up the ship and threatened to boycott the Company unless a claim for $14,000 was settled immediately. The captain was accused of having sunk a fishing junk and drowned a fisherman at sea on the trip from Hong Kong to Swatow. There were, at the time the collision was supposed to have happened, four officers on the bridge. None of them saw, heard or felt, anything, though the night was not dark, and visibility was good.

But it was a case of paying up or facing a boycott, and the Captain was mulcted in a sum of $3,000.

The same ship was loading cargoes for Singapore a few days ago when a basket of them fell on top of a coolie. The coolie died the same evening.

For some strange reason the steward of the ship was held to be partly responsible, and he was compelled to pay $100. The stevedore was charged $150, and the unfortunate exporter who had nothing at all to do with the loading of his cargoes, had to pay $500.

It is not known how much of the $750 went to the heirs and executors of the victim of the accident. If they got $25 they were better treated than usual.

A British shipping firm has just settled a claim for damage done to fishing nets in the harbour. The captain of the steamer which is accused of having destroyed the nets, avers that he did not go near any nets. In any case fishermen are not supposed to spread their nets within harbour limits. But it is useless to argue. The only thing to do is to try and reduce the claim to within reasonable limits, and pay up.

In this case the ship owners got off with $75 and thought themselves lucky that no claim was made for the fish that might have been caught.

SWATOW RESIDENT WOUNDED.ACCIDENT WHILE SHOOTING.

A correspondent to the N.C. Daily News gives the following account of an accident which befell Mr. Firth, the Swatow manager of the B.A.T. He says:—I regret to have to report a misadventure that might have been more serious to Mr. Firth, the local manager of the B.A.T. Yesterday evening, while out on a shooting expedition with two friends, he laid his gun down on a bank, and turned to warn his coolie to take cover as a gaggle of geese were approaching. The gun slipped off the bank, and at the precise moment when the muzzle was pointing to his toe, a twig caught in the trigger. Result—A clean hole bored through his toe.

This is extraordinarily bad luck, as it was a million to one chance that the twig should catch in the trigger just when it did, but that is how things happen. It may be possible to save the member from amputation, and every effort will be made to do so. In the meantime Mr. Firth is as well as could be expected.

CHANGING CANTON.FOUR DIVORCE PETITIONS.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

CANTON, Feb. 16.

The so-called modern people in Canton are neglecting many of the time-honoured customs, especially those in regard to marriage. They are starting a movement aiming to revolutionize social institutions.

This so-called social revolution is finding expression in the daily increasing number of divorce cases in the Courts of Canton. Yesterday four such cases came up to the City Court for decision, and curiously enough, in each case, it was the wife who brought the suit against the husband. Three women had the same complaint against their husbands—cruelty and desertion. The charge of the last complainant was that she suspected her husband of being afflicted with leprosy. Two of the women were still in their "teens," while another had been living with her husband for nearly fifteen years.

WRECK OF THE S.S. HSIN WAH.BRISK BIDDING AT SALE BY AUCTION.*PRICE OF $3,600 REALISED.

At the auction rooms of Messrs. Hughes and Hough on Saturday, the sale took place of the s.s. Hsin Wah as she lies off Waglan, where she foundered in January last year with considerable loss of life.

Prospective buyers, representing many of the local shiphandlery firms, attended in large numbers, evidently being of opinion that a bargain was being offered. It was explained that "apparently a buoy of some sort" marked the place where the vessel lies. It was for the purchaser to locate the vessel, and also obtain any blasting licences which may be necessary.

A condition of the sale was that the purchaser was entitled to take the hull, engines and bunker coal, if any. All passengers' luggage and cargo which may be found must be delivered to the owners.

Bidding started with a modest $50 and the price was doubled by two bids of $25. A competitor then offered an increase of $5, and subsequently minimum bids of $10, raised again to $25, were accepted until $1,400 was reached.

Following an announcement that only $100 bids would be accepted, the sale became very lively and the figure rose to $3,600. Cheong Wo, shiphandlery of Des Voeux Road, became the purchaser at this figure.

The s.s. Hsin Wah was one of the China Merchants' Steam Navigation Company's fleet and was built in 1921 by Messrs. Napier and Miller, Ltd., of Glasgow. Sale particulars gave the dimensions as follows:—Length 270 feet; breadth 40 feet 2 inches; depth 21 feet 6 inches; gross 2,055 and nett 1,358 tons.

ROBBERY IN HARBOUR.JUNK MASTER THROWN OVERBOARD.*AN EARLY MORNING VISIT.

The fokei of fishing boat No. 4213V has made a report to the Water Police Station to the effect that while his boat was off Shamshuipo about 3 a.m. yesterday, three robbers attacked the boat and after throwing the master overboard, made off with $68 in money and $10 worth of salt fish.

The fokei says that the only people on the boat were his master and himself. The boat was anchored some 100 yards from the shore off Shamshuipo and at 3 o'clock on Sunday morning, he was awakened by someone pushing him. On opening his eyes he found that two men were holding him by the throat while the third threatened him with a knife. It was only then that he discovered the boat had been moved out into the harbour to a place near Stonecutters.

The robbers then pushed him into the hold and covered him with a quilt. Later he heard the men putting off in a sampun in the direction of Tsing Island. He then scrambled up to the deck and saw his master swimming about 50 yards from the boat. When rescued the master said that the robbers threw him overboard.

An examination of the boat revealed the fact that the articles mentioned above had been taken away. Up to a late hour last night no arrests had been effected.

FORGED BANKNOTES FOR THE RACES.WOMAN IN POSSESSION GETS SIX MONTHS.

Pleading guilty to a charge of possession of 103 forged $50 notes purporting to be issued by The Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank, a Chinese woman was sentenced to six months' hard labour.

The forged notes, it was stated in evidence, were slightly longer than the proper notes while the words "Hong Kong and Shanghai Banking Corporation" and "Fifty Dollars" were slightly shorter. The signatures were good forgeries and it was the opinion of an assistant of the bank, that the notes would deceive the man in the street.

Mr. Hamilton remarked on the possibility of such notes finding their way to the race course, but Sergeant Clark said that the forged notes had already been shown to the pari-mutuel manager, who had been warned against them.

Mr. Hamilton: It is not suggested that she is the principal?—No, I believe the notes had just been passed on to her.

THE COLD SPELL.OBSERVATORY RETURNS SHOW THREE RECORDS.

The unusually long and cold winter has added three new records to the charts of the Observatory. According to the returns of the Royal Observatory, Kowloon, published in the Government Gazette, January was a month of most unusual weather conditions. The three records are the lowest mean maximum temperature, the most northerly mean wind-direction and the lowest mean wind velocity. "Mean" is certainly a term which many residents of the Colony, who have had their blood thinned by hot summers, will heartily endorse.

There was an astonishing difference between the highest and lowest recorded temperatures of the month, 71.7 and 41.2, while the mean maximum temperature, 59.1, was the lowest on record, the previous record was 59.2 in January 1918. The mean temperature for the month 54.6 was the lowest on record except for 1918 when it was 54, and 50.9 as the mean minimum temperature was the same year.

The mean wind direction N.E. by N. was the most northerly on record, and the mean wind velocity 8.2 m.p.h. was the lowest. Perhaps the most noticeable difference from the normal to the man in the street was the lack of sunshine, and it is not surprising to learn that there were only 71.3 hours of sunshine against an average of 144.9 hours. The total rainfall for the month was 2.27 inches and the average humidity 75.

NEW HONG KONG-SIAM WIRELESS SERVICE.OFFICIAL MESSAGES.

A direct wireless service has been opened between Hong Kong and Bangkok, and the following official messages have been exchanged between His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government and H.M. Minister at Bangkok:—

We trust that this means of direct communication will still further cement the friendship which has always existed between the Kingdom of Siam and the colony of Hong Kong."

"His Majesty the King requests me to convey to you and to the colony of Hong Kong his sincere thanks for your kind expression of sentiments. The relation of friendship between His Majesty's Government and that of Hong Kong has always been cordial, and with this new means of communication, it is His Majesty's belief that the bond of friendship will become closer."

Lots Nos. 2307 and 2308 are situated in Tai Kok Tsui at the junction of Portland Street and Ki Lung Street. The last lot covers about 3,958 square feet, the annual Crown rent being $46 and upset price $6,944.

FOUR SHOPLIFTERS.PROFESSIONAL GANG AT WORK IN CITY.

Sentences of six months' hard labour were passed by Mr. E. W. Hamilton on each of four shoplifters who appeared before him on Saturday morning. It was stated by the Police that these four had been working together, the first man doing the "lifting" and the others looking after the disposal of stolen articles.

Among the articles stolen were an electric clock from the showroom of the Hong Kong Electric Company, a pair of lady's gloves, singlets, jumpers, etc., from the Wing On Company, several pullovers from The Chosen Company, etc. The Police stated that they came upon a quantity of pawntickets, relating to obviously stolen property, but the owners could not be traced.

THE SILVER SCREEN.SOME BIG ATTRACTIONS.

Even those folk who do not make a regular habit of going to "the pictures" will be tempted this week, while regular "movie fans" will certainly make a point of not missing either "The Showboat" or "Wings."

No doubt many Hong Kong residents have seen "The Showboat" either in a New York theatre or at Drury Lane, and therefore will be interested to see how it looks on the screen. Those who have not seen the play will be familiar with the melodies "Old Man River" and "Can't Help Lovin' That Man," and will be curious to hear how those songs really should be sung.

At the Queen's Theatre "The Showboat" was presented yesterday for the first time, and won instant approval. It is a film with a real, life-like story behind it, enlivened by some very tuneful music, and played by a very brilliant company. "The Showboat" is one of the best films we have yet seen at the Queen's—a happy combination of the dramatic and amusing, with effects above the average, excellent acting, and some good singing.

The scenes of Mississippi River life are as novel as they are attractive, and the storm episode is really thrilling. Amusing, too, are the pictures of old-time manners and customs—and dresses.

It is a film to see and prospective visitors are reminded that the times at the Queen's have been changed, being now 2.30, 5, 7.15, and 9.30, an alternation necessitated by the length of the film.

At the Star to-day Betty Brownson and Louise Dresser are to be seen in an amusing story of stage life, while to-morrow and Wednesday "The Crowd" will be presented, a story of just ordinary humanity which is said to have a very powerful appeal.

In another column will be found an announcement of the presentation of the Majestic for the whole of this week of "Wings," one of the most wonderful films ever shown. It is a story of the air, and is a picture to see for no other reason than it gives such a vivid idea of the astounding feats which can be performed by daring aviators. Some of the incidents defy description—written statements would seem incredible—these things must be seen to be believed. Those who have witnessed the annual R.A.F. display at Hendon will have an idea of what to expect when they see "Wings." No less amazing is the skill with which these almost incredible aerobatics have been photographed. Movie camera-men certainly never had more exciting experiences than those which befell the operators responsible for taking the aerial pictures in "Wings."

Clara Bow, El Brendel, "Gunboat" Smith, and a score of others supply the dramatic and humorous touches to this thrilling story, part of which takes place "on the ground" at the Folies Bergere (or an imitation of it). Although "Wings" is a war-time story, it is free from any jingoistic touch, and is a really amazing film which is an education as well as an entertainment.

HONG KONG, FEBRUARY 17, 1930.

THE MELTING SNOWS AND WAR.

To the foreign observer of Chinese affairs prospects of peace and returning prosperity in the Republic are no better now than they were a year ago. A general opinion is that when this exceptionally long and severe winter ends, and campaigning conditions become easier, the smouldering embers of war throughout the land will again burst into flame. Last year, about this time Li Tsai Hsin was setting out on his desperate attempt to settle the Hankow dispute, and it was felt that could he but succeed the land might have peace. He did not, and the war started by Li Tsai Hsin's coup in Hankow, when, as Commander-in-Chief, he turned out the civil government, on the ground that it was of a Communist nature, has been waged intermittently ever since. The whole country is involved, from Kwangtung to Manchuria, the imbroglio with Russia over the Chinese Eastern Railway being but one of the many reactions of this colossal struggle. Not long ago Britain was regarded as the arch-enemy of China and the source of all her ills from Canton to Manchuria. Then it was Russia in general and Borzobin in particular. Next Japan had a turn in the role of a national Iago, and now it is Russia's second innings as the villain. The possibility of China being her own worst enemy has not received from Chinese observers the study and the attention which it merits. As things have been they remain. The cynic is tempted to exclaim, adding that the only thing upon which the Chinese leaders are agreed is the elimination of any of their number, such as Wu Pei Fu or Li Tsai Hsin, who seems genuinely imbued with a patriotism that puts the good of the country first and seeks to stamp out the brigandage and corruption which is bleeding the country white. There is still a complete inability to face the situation. Nanking and Canton both make light of their enemies. The situation is always "well in hand." "Our" troops are monotonously victorious and every General, until he is denounced as a Communist, a reactionary and a traitor to the Republic, is entirely loyal and moving troops in accordance with orders. Simultaneously the Ministries announce grandiose schemes of reform. The Canton-Hankow Railway—a matter of great interest to us in Hong Kong—is to be completed and work is to start at the end of the month! How many times has that announcement been made! There are other railway projects; telephone, telegraph and wireless systems are to link up all important towns; coastal and river shipping is to be taken over by the Government and foreign concerns will have either to hoist the Kuomintang flag or to seek new spheres of operation. The currency is to be put on a gold basis, likin are to be abolished, a modern legal and prison system is to spring up in a night, and the "abolition" of extra-territoriality to be made a reality. It sounds as though ALLAN's lamp had found its way to Nanking, and that the fortunate Chinese Ministers can "call spirits from the vasty deep." As of course they can. But the spirits will not answer, and China's leaders hold in their hands no magic talisman—not even that of steadfastness—of purpose. "The country is unified," the "Nanking Government has quelled many plots and one after another of its enemies has been eliminated." But in fact these "enemies" are hydra-headed, because no one will put country before family and clan. Each man attains power at the expense of his colleagues, and the friends of one enterprise are enemies in the next.

All the leaders of the now warring factions were still allies a year ago, and had fought side by side for unification and the ending of "the militarists." The "Big Four" of the Kwangsi clique ruled in Peking, Canton, Hankow and Kwangsi. Fung Yu Hsiang had borne a heavy part in the final campaign against the Northern militarists, and Yen Hsi SHAN had occupied the capital in the name of the Kuomintang. What had they to do but to divide the inheritance, and set to work restoring prosperity? They were all men of proved courage and ability, and each of them seemed fully equal to his task. They preferred—or perhaps "circumstances" forced them—to fight among themselves, and bring vast areas of potentially wealthy country to the verge of utter desolation. The situation is such that the American Red Cross Society reports that while two million people may be expected to die of famine it is useless to attempt relief measures, because money and supplies will not reach the sufferers, and the problem is one which only China herself can solve. Now comes news from the North that Yen Hsi SHAN has called upon Marshal CHIANG KAI SHEK to fulfil his oft-made promise to retire from office. More significant is Yen's expression of regret that disciples of Sun Yat SEN should be still slaughtering one another, and his expression of doubt as to whether unification can be ever accomplished by the "militarist" methods of the present Administration. Yen's declaration is a definite challenge to Nanking, and has drawn a defiant reply from CHIANG KAI SHEK that he does not intend to resign, nor to abandon his efforts to suppress completely "all reactionary elements" throughout the country. As each faction regards the other as reactionary, there seems to be no prospect of peace in the Republic. The sole refuge of the optimist is still the consoling reflection that in China it is the unexpected that happens. While last year's prospects of peace turned abruptly into a reality of useless war, the appearance of inevitable conflict may see some form of compromise. In spite of the somewhat threatening tone of his recent message, YEN HSI SHAN is fortunately of a naturally pacific disposition, and CHIANG KAI SHEK realises the economic possibilities of his vast domain of Manchuria. They seem between them to have eliminated Fung Yu HSIANG, the stormy petrel of the North. In the South CHIANG KAI SHEK should see by this time that he cannot hope to subdue Kwangsi, and the only practical course is peace by negotiation. Peace and war are still in balance though the scales are heavily weighted in favour of conflict. But what goes on in the secrecy of the yamens is beyond European knowledge. We can only hope that those upon whom the decision rests will call to mind the great military figures, Wu Pei Fu, SUN CHUAN FANG, Chang Tso LIN, and a host of others who have passed from power to obscurity. This may weigh with them more heavily than any thought of famine-stricken Kansu and Shensi, or even the steady deterioration of their own country.

Mr. James West, for seven years chief of the Washington staff of the Associated Press, was last week appointed Public Director for the Republican National Committee. It is notified in the Government Gazette that the following tender has been accepted: Messrs. Dodwell & Co., Ltd., for cleaning and repairing typewriters in all Government Offices at 83 per machine per annum. A third consignment of aeroplanes ordered by the National Government from America arrived in Shanghai a few days ago, and have been sent to the Hungjiao Aerodrome to be assembled. A fourth consignment will arrive on the 17th instant. Shortly after 9.30 last night, a small fire broke out in the front verandah of 81, Parkes Street, Kowloon. A call was received at the Salisbury Road Station, and three engines were sent to the scene of the outbreak, which, however, was put out without the aid of the firemen. A motor car accident occurred yesterday along the Castle Peak Road at Lai-chikok opposite the prison. An Erskin, No. 238, driven by a European ran over the side of the road into a ditch some twelve feet below when the driver attempted to pass a stationary bus. It appears that the bus had pulled up at the side of the road, and a public vehicle, coming from an opposite direction accelerated in an effort to get through first. The driver, however, changed his mind and pulled up behind the bus instead. His back wheel was projected on to the road and it is believed that the private car struck this, and was deflected into the ditch. Nobody was hurt.

Some 67 piculs of opium, seized by the Customs from December 21 to January 22 and valued at $181,903, were burnt at the Pootung furnaces last week in the presence of a number of local officials.

Mr. W. H. Donald, former co-director of the Bureau of Economic Information, and now adviser in economic relations to Marshal Chang Hsueh Liang, has gone to Japan for a rest cure. Mr. Donald, has been in ill-health during the past few weeks.

At an auction held in New York last week, the Chinese art collection of Lee Wan Ching of Shanghai brought a total of G.$27,657. The highest-priced object was a dark green jade mountain on a white jade stand, of the Chien Lung period. This sold for $825.

The Greater Shanghai Health Bureau has started a class for the training of midwives. According to an order issued by the Commissioner, all midwives who have been engaged in practice will be required to take a month's course, failing which they will be forbidden to pursue their calling.

Mr. H. Nyhuus, who is believed to be a Norwegian, was found dead at 2.15 a.m. on Saturday morning in a chair in the billiard room of the Kowloon Hotel. Dr. J. E. Dovey, examined the body and certified that death was due to natural causes. The funeral took place on Saturday Afternoon.

Reports were current in financial circles in New York last week that officials of the Dollar Line and the American-Hawaiian Steamship Co. have held several meetings at which they discussed various phases of operations, including a possible merger, but it was stated that nothing definite can be announced at present.

A marriage will take place in March, in Shanghai, between John Erickson, second son of the late Erickson Travers Pym, Chinese Maritime Customs, and Mrs. Pym, and grandson of the late General E. L. Pym, and Patricia Mary, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mair, of 3, March-Wood-Crescent, Ealing, and grand-daughter of the late J. G. Mair-Rumley.

H.E. the Officer Administering the Government has made the following promotions in the Hong Kong Volunteer Defence Corps to date from February, 1. Lieutenant Manna Alfred Johnson, M.M., to be Captain; Lieutenant Henry Russell Forsyth to be Captain; Second Lieutenant Alex. Hutton Potts to be Lieutenant; Second Lieutenant Jose Simao Rodrigues to be Lieutenant; Sergeant Leslie Frere Nicholson to be Second Lieutenant.

It is learned that the Aviation Department of the Ministry of War in Nanking has granted permission to a Russian aviator in France to fly to China for the purpose of giving aerial demonstrations in China. The application was received at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs some time ago through the French Consular authorities in Shanghai. The Russian student flier will be accompanied by a French pilot and will give demonstrations at Canton, Foochow, Shanghai and Nanking.

A large delegation of prominent Chinese of New York, together with many Americans including newspaper photographers and reporters, greeted the famous Chinese actor, Mei Lan Fang, when he arrived at the Grand Central station last week. A grand reception was held in the hall of the station, where contingents of Chinese boys and girls sang the Chinese national anthem and presented Mei with large floral offerings. Mr. Mei was subsequently the guest of the Chinese colony of New York at a banquet in the Ambassador Hotel.

A surprise visit was paid to Dar-es-Salaam by the Prince of Wales last week from the steamship Modasa. Without hat or coat and wearing evening dress, he went ashore in a launch, which carried him for five miles, through a tortuous channel of coral reefs to the romantic town of waving palms, bathed in moonlight. His Royal Highness visited a dance in the open air on the Club verandah, surrounded by palm trees and facing the sea. The Prince enjoyed many dances before returning to the ship in the early hours of the morning.

The wedding was solemnized at the Union Church, Shanghai, last week when Miss Barbara Margaret Smith became the bride of Mr. William Watson Campbell. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. F. Bors-Smith. The bride wore a gown of white satin charmeuse, trimmed with a diamond belt, and a veil of embroidered tulle, held in place with orange-blossoms and white heather. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and pink carnations. She was attended by Miss Isabelle Lawson, who wore a dress of pale green silk and a hat of beige and green, and carried a bouquet and deep pink carnations. After the wedding the couple left on their honeymoon trip for Tsingtao.

A cable has been received by the H.K. Automobile Association from the Auto Cycle Union, London, organisers of the Tourist Trophy Races in the Island of Man, suggesting that a competitor from Hong Kong should come and compete in the Races in Mid-June. Free passage and a machine will be provided. It is learned that the offer will be considered at a meeting by the Committee of the local Association.

The following appointments are notified in the Government Gazette: H.E. the Officer Administering the Government has appointed Mr. Robert Andrew Dermot Forrest to act as Chief Assistant to the Secretary for Chinese Affairs, with effect from February, and also to be a Member of the Board of Examiners, with effect from February, 8. Mr. Walter Schofield is to act as Assistant Head of the Sanitary Department, in addition to his other duties, with effect from February, 10.

Men who Ho Things

The lecture giving by Mr. E. Cock, M.B.E., A.M.I.C.E., M.I.N.A., at the University on Friday last a summary which appeared in our last issue) was held under the auspices of the University Engineering Society, and was the first of a series of lectures which will be given during the session. The meeting was well attended, not only by all of the engineering students of the University, but by many well-known local engineers and shipbuilders. Mr. Cock mentioned that he was the third of a line of shipbuilders in his family, and had had bequeathed to him and accumulated so many books and papers in connection with this subject that his great difficulty had been to condense so much material into one lecture. Before introducing the lecturer Prof. Middleton Smith, who presided, congratulated the University engineering students upon the plucky effort which they made during the recent motor-cycle reliability trials. There were eight entries from the University out of a total of 51 competitors, five finished, and the third prize came to the University. The two first-year engineering students who finished were especially to be congratulated. In introducing Mr. Cock the chairman said it was the first occasion on which a member of the staff of any local shipbuilding and ship-repairing yard had accepted an invitation to lecture at the University, and he sincerely hoped that this precedent would be followed by others. The University engineers wanted to see more of the practical men who do things. At the conclusion of the lecture Mr. Pao Yee Lum, Chairman of the Society, moved a vote of thanks, and expressed the appreciation of the engineering students to Mr. Cock for giving up his valuable time in the preparation of such an instructive and interesting lecture.

Looking Back 25 Years.

The Merionethshire, Captain C. H. Burch, put back here yesterday towing the Oscar II. (Captain R. Olsen), of Bergen, with her main shaft broken. The Merionethshire left Hong Kong for Shanghai on Tuesday, and at six o'clock on Wednesday morning, when ten miles south-west of High Lamcock, the disabled steamer, flying signals of distress, "want immediate assistance," was sighted. Captain Burch proceeded to get a tow-ropes on board by means of rockets. The sea being so heavy, however, it was found impossible to get close enough to successfully carry out this manoeuvre. A boat, in charge of the third officer, was therefore with great difficulty, launched, and after a heavy pull she arrived to leeward of the Oscar II. while alongside the boat on two occasions narrowly escaped being capsized by the steamer sheering on top of it. The connection being made the boat returned, and a hawser connection was made between the vessel. The Merionethshire towed the Oscar II. to port, a distance of 200 miles, arriving at noon yesterday. The Oscar II. had left Hong Kong for Shanghai on Monday—Hong Kong Daily Press, February 17, 1905.

Looking Back 50 Years.

Tang Asing, a boy, fourteen years old, was charged by Henrique Hyndman, a clerk, with absconding himself from his employ without just cause, on the 14th instant. The complainant said "prisoner" has been in his employ since January and received $1 a month. On Saturday last he went out at 2.30 and did not return until five o'clock. He had often absconded himself before. When he returned on Saturday witness told him to look at the clock and see how long he had been absent, and he laughed at him. Mrs. Hyndman then given him a light blow on the shoulder with a cane and he left the house. The prisoner's mother told witness to beat him. The prisoner said that his mistress was in the habit of beating him. There were formerly two servants in the house, but now one had gone, and they expected him (prisoner) to do all the work. On Saturday, when he was beaten, he came to the station to complain, when the complainant followed and charged him. His Worship discharged the prisoner.—Hong Kong Daily Press, February 17, 1905.

TRAGEDY OF CHINA'S RAILWAYS.

FIFTEEN HUNDRED TRUCKS MISSING.

ROTTEN SLEEPERS AND UNNECESSARY IMPORTS OF COAL.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

SHANGHAI, Feb. 15.
Mr. Mantell, an American, who is advisor to the Ministry of Railways, in a memorandum regarding the Tientsin-Pukow Railway, states that the proper operation of the line has been interrupted for many years by military activities, and out of a total of 1,988 waggons owned by the railway, 1,523 have been removed off the line, while over thirty per cent. of the sleepers are in an absolutely rotten condition, "in fact in the last stages of decay."

Mr. Mantell, however, has high hopes for the future of the railway, and says, that with a car float service across the Yangtze at Pukow, the railway could develop a gross revenue of at least 30,000,000 dollars per annum within five years.

He points out that a million tons of coal were imported from Japan through Shanghai last year, while the output of the Chungking mines on the railway, 470 miles from Shanghai, could easily be increased to 5,000 tons daily if adequate transportation was furnished, and then the coal would be mined by Chinese labour, and there would be no need of Japanese. Mr. Mantell states that goods rates increased by seventy per cent. between 1920 and 1924, and urges lower rates for coal, and agricultural and other goods.

UNNECESSARY WASTE OF MONEY.

PROPOSED FERRY ACROSS THE YANGTZE.

In a memorandum submitted to Mr. Sun Fo, Minister of Railways, by Mr. John J. Mantell, Advisor to the Ministry, regarding the latter's inspection of the Shanghai-Nanking Railway and the Shanghai-Hangchow-Ningpo Railway, the American railway expert stated that the "railway affairs were being handled on a very improper business basis," and that there was an apparent "unnecessary waste of money."

"These railways have not been developed," Mr. Mantell continued in his report, "in the manner in which they should have been for economic administration, transportation, and development of new business, particularly goods business, and establishment of rates to meet the conditions of traffic, or in other words, to some extent what the traffic will bear."

A Matter of Paint.
The goods waggons on the above railways have been seriously neglected in the matter of painting, and they are deteriorating rapidly by corrosion. There should be no excuse for a situation of this kind. With the great amount of labour and over-staffing which is evident, a small percentage of the cars can be released to go to the shops at Woosung, and at concentrating points for cars. These cars could easily be wire-brushed and given a coat of paint.

Waste of Coal.
"There is a tremendous waste of coal on the part of firemen in stoking locomotives. The firemen have evidently never been instructed in scientific firing. The firemen, as well as some of the division superintendents, have no idea with regard to grate draught, fire door draught, etc. Scientific firing combustion and burning of gases are not practised. There is an estimated waste of from 15 to 20 per cent. in fuel due to lack of proper practical instruction of firemen."

Rates Too High.
"The railroad rates are too high. Too high rates prevent the development of business. What will contribute more than all else to diminution of cost is the adapting of the railways to new conditions of goods traffic, and the full utilization of the railways by securing additional traffic to the utmost. The method of creating rates on a difference of cost of service is a fallacy. Continuous rate adjustment must be made."

Among the recommendations made by Mr. Mantell were the purchase of six locomotives of the Mountain Type and the appropriation of $280,000 for the strengthening of the railway bridges. The double-tracking of the railway between Shanghai and Nanking was believed unnecessary. The statement of nine years' business, according to Mr. Mantell, would not indicate a necessity for doing this for the next ten years. It is believed, however, that with intelligent management and proper rates, the traffic of the railway can be developed, as well as the traffic from the North with installation of a car float service at Nanking. Then there will be a necessity for double tracking within the next seven or eight years.

Crossing the Yangtze.
The problem of the Nanking-Pukow ferry was also discussed in Mr. Mantell's memorandum. "The direct line of the railway between Shanghai and Peking," he stated, "is broken at Nanking on account of the Yangtze River." It was fairly estimated that 25 or 30 years would go by before a bridge could be considered preferable to a ferry in the vicinity of Nanking. The absence of physical connection at this place constituted a very serious defect in the railway system as a whole and under authorization from the Ministry plans were being sent from America, showing methods and effect in crossing the Mississippi which in many respects is similar to the Yangtze.

EARTHQUAKE IN CRETE SEVERAL INJURED.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

ATHENS, Feb. 16.
An earthquake, which was felt near the east of the city on Friday night, destroyed ten villages in Crete. Several persons were injured and the inhabitants panicked and ran from the villages.

TWENTY-FOUR NEW TREATIES.

LEAGUE'S RECORD YEAR.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

GENEVA, Feb. 15.
The year 1929 was a record year for the League of Nations. Its pacific labours saw twenty-four new treaties registered at the secretariat compared with fifteen in 1928, and six in 1927, the United States signed twenty last year.

ANTARCTIC EXPEDITION.

SIR HUBERT WILKINS RETURNS.

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.
The New York American says that Sir Hubert Wilkins in the whaler William Scoresby, after a terrific battle with mountainous seas, has returned to his base at Deception Island, after three weeks in the Antarctic ice.

He and his personnel left immediately for Montevideo aboard the steamship Henrik Ibsen. Thus the Wilkins-Hearst expedition has completed its work for the year.

A HEALTHIER NATION.

ENGLISH MORE SOBER AND LONGER LIVED.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUGBY, Feb. 15.
Giving evidence before the Royal Commission on Licensing, Sir George Newman, chief medical officer of the Ministry of Health, spoke of the great improvement which had taken place in national habits and national health. English people, he declared, are becoming more sober, more healthy and longer lived. As to evil effects of overdrinking, he stated the high death rates during the past two hundred years had coincided with periods of alcoholic excess, mainly spirit drinking, and that alcoholism rendered people more susceptible to pneumonia, tuberculosis and other diseases.

HUNGARIAN POISONING TRIALS.

WOMAN SENTENCED TO DEATH.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

BUDAPEST, Feb. 15.
Another death sentence in connection with the poisoning trials of the Szolnok tribunal convicted Lidia Ostry with poisoning her father and mother with arsenic. Lidia has been married frequently and quarrelled with her parents regarding money, she visited the old couple and made tea which made them sick.

Hungarians are becoming most resentful at the way the foreign press is paying attention to this series of sensational poisoning cases, especially the London paper's comparison of Hungarian peasants with Kaffirs and their witch doctors.

JAPAN STANDS FIRM.

NAVAL CONFERENCE ISSUE.

FRANCE "RAISES DIFFICULTIES."

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

TOKYO, February 15.
While the British Press appears to assume that Japan is prepared to give up her claim for seventy per cent. because it is not mentioned in the Japanese statement, it is emphasised that Japan has no such intention, but on the contrary it is explained that the schedules contained in the Japanese memorandum are framed to give Japan exactly seventy per cent. of the American strength of total auxiliaries and seventy per cent. of large cruisers. It is learned from an unimpeachable source that the figures are only "substantially correct."

The actual figures in the first schedule are:—America, large cruisers 180,000 tons, small 147,000 tons, destroyers 150,000 tons, submarines 81,000 tons; Japan, 128,000 tons, 81,700 tons, 105,000 tons, 77,900 tons. The alternative proposal is:—America, 150,000 tons, 180,000 tons, 150,000 tons, 81,000 tons; Japan, 103,400 tons, 107,700 tons, 105,000 tons, 77,900 tons. If America desires only 60,000 tons submarines as proposed, Japan is willing that America should transfer 21,000 tons to the destroyer category, which then would become 171,000 tons, Japan retaining 77,900 tons submarines.

Press Critical.

RUGBY, February 15.
The principal delegates to the Naval Conference are again spending the week-end out of London, and on this occasion the proceedings of the last few days have given them ample material for review and study in comparative leisure.

The French memorandum, which to-day mainly monopolises press comment, much of it being distinctly critical, has been, during the last two days, the subject of conversations between the chief British, American, and French delegates, and these will probably be resumed on Tuesday evening after the French Premier has returned from a week-end in his own capital.

Press discussion of the French memorandum turns on the question whether the figures and proposals it contains are elastic or not, and if they are, as everyone who desires the conference to produce substantial achievements steadfastly hope, what is the extent of that elasticity. It is not denied that as the French proposals stand, they "raise difficulties" for Britain and America, and this, it is assumed, has not been concealed from the French delegates by Mr. MacDonald and Mr. Stimson.

A Misunderstanding.

There is, however, a considerable measure of optimism in conference circles, and M. Tardieu is credited with the first prophecy regarding the date of its termination. He is stated to have guessed that it will end with a treaty signed on March 10.

One slight misunderstanding arising out of the French memorandum has meanwhile been remedied. The document affirmed that war between France and Great Britain and France and United States is "unthinkable," but "did not" in that connection specifically mention Japan and Italy. Now it is pointed out that these two countries were not mentioned solely because the memorandum in that passage was commenting upon the only suggestions and figures then available, namely those of Britain and America.

MR. HOOVER RETURNS TO WASHINGTON.

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

CONLEY (Florida), Feb. 15.
After a week of deep-sea fishing, on the Atlantic and Gulf of Mexico, President Hoover and party departed for Washington to-day instead Monday, owing to the developments of the Naval Conference. The President desires to keep in closer touch with London than is possible here.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.
In a broadcast address, Senator Walsh, acting democratic leader, advocated the adherence of the United States to the Mediterranean Peace Pact and suggested that the London Conference explained the pact to be similar to the Pacific pact, negotiated at Washington in 1922. He suggested, that in the event of a threat of war, the Mediterranean Powers would welcome the disinterested good offices of the United States in order to avert a catastrophe.

HAVANA, Feb. 15.

THE NORTHERN SITUATION.

FIGHTING IMMINENT.

CHIANG AND YEN AT LOGGERHEADS.

[FROM A SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.]

SHANGHAI, Feb. 16.
Marshal Yen Hsi Shan's telegram, addressed to Marshal Chiang Kai Shek, requesting him to retire, is regarded in Chinese political circles as a signal for the outbreak of hostilities. Following this action, Marshal Yen has issued a message to the Chinese people appealing for their support.

In the message he refers to the present deplorable situation, and the endless sufferings of the people. He asserts that the years of civil wars are due to the attempt made by some military leaders to achieve national unification by force.

He says, inter alia: "As the Kuomintang Party is known in China as the only political party which aims to place the nation on the road of freedom and democracy, how is it possible to achieve this end when a military dictatorship is set up in the Central Government. I sincerely hope that our countrymen will support me in my appeal for peace throughout the country, and that a national convention be called."

In reply to Marshal Yen's challenge, the Nanking leaders have warned him that, as he is a member of the Kuomintang Party, his action in forcing Marshal Chiang Kai Shek to retire has almost culminated in rebellion against the party.

The statement concludes: "How can we hope to put national politics in order if our national leaders do not appreciate the importance of loyalty and discipline?"

SHANGHAI, Feb. 16.
It is stated semi-officially, from Nanking, that Chiang Kai Shek has replied to Yen Hsi Shan's telegram. While the contents have not been divulged it is understood that Chiang Kai Shek pointed out that the present conditions of the country did not justify any Kuomintang leader retiring.

According to Japanese despatches Feng Yu Hsiang has returned to Shensi and has taken over command of the Kuomintang. General Han Fu Chu, and other pro-Kuomintang generals have sent a circular telegram attacking the Central Government against whom they have reported war preparations.

NANKING, Feb. 16.
Mr. Hu Han Min, General Tan Yen Kai, and Dr. Wang Chung Hui, the presidents of the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Yuan respectively, have cabled Marshal Yen Hsi Shan deploring the latter's attempt to "coerce" Marshal Chiang Kai Shek to retire and accuse Yen Hsi Shan with fermenting strife and urge him to "ponder carefully for the welfare of the Party and the Government."

UNEASINESS IN PEPING.

(Wah Tsz Yat Poo.)

PEPING, Feb. 15.
Since Yen urged Chiang to retire, rumours are rife here, and merchants are uneasy. The Legations are watching the development with keen attention.

DR. WANG ON FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

GOOD PROSPECTS FOR FUTURE.

In an interview with Press representatives in Nanking last week, Dr. C. T. Wang, Minister of Foreign Affairs, made the following statement:—

- 1.—Sino-British conversations regarding various outstanding issues are in progress. As instructions from London have not been received, no decision has been reached as yet regarding the Boxer Indemnity Fund and the Weihaiwei question. Sir Miles Lampson is in telegraphic communication with his Government, but some delay is inevitable in view of the pre-occupation of Mr. Arthur Henderson, the British Foreign Minister, with the great Naval Conference now being held in London.
- 2.—The Polish Government being desirous of elucidating several points in the Sino-Polish agreement, M. Weydental, the Polish delegate, is now holding daily conferences with the Ministry on the subject.
- 3.—Major Hnizdo, the Czechoslovakian delegate, arrived on February 7 and has initiated the Sino-Czechoslovakian Treaty which has been under negotiation. Formal signature will follow when M. Hnizdo receives final instructions from his Government.
- 4.—The Sino-Russian question is still under careful consideration by the Government, Dr. Wang stated.

RUSSIAN PRIMATE'S DENIALS.

NO RELIGIOUS PERSECUTION.

ATHEISM FLOURISHING.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

MOSCOW, Feb. 16.
According to the official Tass Agency, Soviet journalists have submitted a questionnaire to Metropolitan Sergius, head of the Patriarchal Orthodox Church, and members of the Holy Synod.

Judging from their answers, there is no persecution of religion in Soviet Russia and never was. Churches have certainly been closed, but at the request of the population clergymen and church-goers have certainly been arrested and exiled, but owing to anti-Government acts, not religion.

Religious services are permitted, but unfortunately, the Metropolitan declares, sometimes do not show sufficient zeal. Persons reaching a "suitable" age may be taught religion. Under Soviet law all religions have equal rights. We are naturally worried by the rapid development of atheism and the position of the church is becoming worse, but we hope the faith will survive.

The Metropolitan stigmatised the recent Papal pronouncement as a departure from the Christian path, and the Archbishop of Canterbury as "smelling fishy, and prompting his flock to new intervention."

Further Protests in Britain.

LONDON, Feb. 14.
The Executive National Council of Evangelical Free Churches meeting to-day adopted a resolution expressing the horror of the Free Churches at the persecution by the Soviet Government of Christian and other religious people.

The resolution calls upon the Free Churches to unite with other Christians in prayer on behalf of the sufferers in the Soviet Campaign of cruelty, and urges the Government to its utmost to remedy the terrible situation.

Mr. Stanley Baldwin, the leader of the Conservative Party, speaking at Belfast to-day, declared that British entry into diplomatic relations with Russia was now an intolerable humiliation for Britain.

The situation gave the lie to all we had stood for generations.

MOSCOW, Feb. 16.
The Pravda declares that Mr. Henderson's reply, in the House of Commons on February 13, in regard to religion in Russia represents a surrender to the Conservative pressure and is a hostile act against the Soviet. It also describes the denunciatory speeches by the Church leaders as "preparations for moral intervention in the Soviet," and imputes political motives to "campaigns ecclesiastical." It concludes by emphasising that every attempt to interfere with internal affairs of the Soviet should be resolutely crushed.

SOVIET TO CLOSE STOCK EXCHANGES.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

MOSCOW, Feb. 16.
The Government has decided to close goods and stock exchanges. The value of foreign currencies and securities are to be fixed, in future, by committees attached to the Soviet State Bank and its Vladivostok branch.

SIXTEEN MILES DISPLAY.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Feb. 15.
Britain is opening to the world on Monday in two sections, one in London, and one in Birmingham, the most important trade exhibition ever held, namely the British Industries Fair. Invitations have been sent to over 200,000 buyers in sixty different countries to view and buy everything for the home, farm and factory.

As the goods, which are displayed on a frontage of sixteen miles, are expected to speak for themselves, the fair opens silently and unceremoniously, the speeches being reserved for the Government banquet at the Guildhall in London in the evening.

CIVIL RESISTANCE IN INDIA.

"FINAL STRUGGLE."

NEW CAMPAIGN URGED.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

AHMEDABAD, Feb. 15.
The All-India Congress Executive has authorised Gandhi to start a civil disobedience campaign.

The resolution authorises Gandhi and other believers in the creed of no violence to start a civil disobedience campaign as and when they desire, trusting that, when the campaign is actually working, all members of the Congress and others will extend towards civil resistance their full co-operation in every way possible, and hoping that lawyers and students will withdraw their co-operation from the Government and throw themselves in "the final struggle."

COTTON TRADE IN INDIA.

BIG INROADS BY JAPAN.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

NEW DELHI, Feb. 15.
The Federation of the Indian Chambers of Commerce are unanimously expressing deep concern at the continued depression of the cotton textile industry, and are strongly urging the Government to confer immediately after effective protection. The mover of the resolution dwelt on the serious inroads of Japanese goods both in Indian and Overseas markets.

A meeting of the local millowners' Association passed a resolution in favour of closing the cotton mills one extra day weekly from February 15, in view of the accumulation of piece-goods stocks at the mills, and the present market conditions.

FUTURE OF AUSTRALIAN COTTON.

A FLOURISHING INDUSTRY.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

BRISBANE, Feb. 15.
Mr. Walker, the Queensland Minister of Agriculture, has announced that an agreement has been reached for the cotton board on behalf of the growers, belonging to the British and Australian Cotton Association, to take over the gineries and oil mills, and thus to place the cotton industry on a co-operative basis.

He said the Government had carefully considered the future of the cotton industry, and had ascertained that the yield per acre compared more than favourably with the yield of the United States' average crop, and a superior average value of 65 points above the American middling, while production costs compared most favourably. The Association has six gineries and oil mills and the purchase price has been agreed upon at £137,000.

WIRELESS IN IRELAND.

PROPOSED NEW HIGH POWER STATION.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Feb. 14.
The Irish Free State is to have its own high-power station from which wireless programmes will be broadcast.

Plans have been submitted by the Ministry of Posts and Telegraphs for the erection of a transmitter which will probably cost £70,000, and these plans have now been officially passed.

Although the actual site has not been definitely decided upon, it is considered likely that the new station will be built near Ashlone.

SPAIN'S MANY TRIALS.

KING DISSOLVES "PUPPET" PARLIAMENT.

ALLEGED ABUSES OF DICTATORSHIP.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

MADRID, Feb. 16.
The pendulum is swinging very rapidly from the dictatorship, and the King has dissolved the National Assembly, De Rivera's "puppet" parliament. Firemen have already covered the old lettering on the door with a new brass-plate inscribed "Congreso de Diputados."

Another decree revives the Municipal and Provincial Councils, and another restores promotion in the Army by seniority instead of by merit.

Socialist Attacks Against King.

MADRID, Feb. 14.
Vehement attacks upon King Alfonso, coupled with the prevalent industrial disputes and the growing unemployment are enhancing the difficulties facing the new Premier, General Berenguer, in his task "of leading the country back to constitutional methods."

The only definite fact emerging from the very confused political situation is that the Socialists are at present the only organised Party. They are, moreover, in a fighting mood and the criticisms that they formerly levelled at Primo de Rivera, the Dictator, are now directed against the King.

Public opinion has been excited by the revelations of alleged abuses, maladministration and spendthrift habits of the Dictatorship.

The older Parties are endeavouring to organise, but they are handicapped by lack of leaders. The stage is at present held by Unamuno, the Liberal leader, and Lerroux, the Republican Party leader, who are engaged in publishing virulent diatribes against the King.

The Government has instructed the Madrid Municipality to speed up public works and to absorb the unemployed in the hope of preventing further disturbances. The Police at Barcelona last night dispersed "war-like" crowds, who stoned and sacked the headquarters of the Patriotic Union, de Rivera's organisation.

NEW WIRELESS MARVEL.

TELEPHONING TO SHIP IN MID-ATLANTIC.

RUGBY, Feb. 15.
Conversations between people on Land and people in mid-Atlantic are the latest wonder provided by wireless. The Postmaster General announces that, following successful tests of wireless telephonic communication with the White Star Liner public service has been opened between the ship and telephone subscribers in Britain.

Although the service is somewhat experimental in character, and for the moment is available only for calls originating on the ship, it is hoped to extend it on the next voyage to calls originating on shore. Rugby wireless station is used for transmission to the ship, and Baldoak station for reception by wireless. The trunk exchange where the service is controlled, the service will be available for any ship on the North Atlantic route, which is fitted with any suitable type of wireless telephone apparatus. Yesterday evening, when the Majestic was one thousand miles across the Atlantic, the service was successfully opened and many conversations were carried on easily and audibly.

R.A. v. SOUTH CHINA.

This game was played on the Garrison ground at Sookumpoo and ended in a win for South China by the odd goal in three.

The teams lined out as under:—
R.A.: Fletcher; Taylor and Rawlings; Taylor, Ward and Gardiner; Cotton, Allen, Gill, Davey and Walker.

South China: Pau Ka Ping; Li Tin Sang and Tong Kwan; Pau Ka Lin, Wong Mee Shun and Leung Yin Chan; Chen Sui Hon, Leung Wing Tak, Pau Ka Chuen, Chui Kwok Luen and Ip Pak Wah.

South China took up the running from the kick off, but Ip Pak Wah was pulled up for offence. End to end play was the order, the goalkeepers being safe. Gill took a pot shot from a pass by Davey and the ball entered the net near the post to give the Gunners the lead after twenty minutes play.

With this success, the R.A. returned to the attack and Gill almost repeated his previous success, Pau turning behind with a good effort.

South China levelled up through Chen Sui Hon, Fletcher having no chance with a fast low shot.

The R.A. had a chance to level up when awarded a free kick near the penalty line, but were slow in taking the kick and the whistle sounded for the interval with the score one all.

The R.A. opened the second half with a strong attack, but faulty play by Walker lost a good chance. A free kick just clear of the penalty line was awarded South China, but Li Tin Sang shot wide from the kick. Taking a pot shot from a weak clearance by Taylor, Pau Ka Chuen sent the ball into the net from twenty-five yards, Fletcher being taken by surprise.

Wong Mee Shun jumped at Gill and was cautioned by the referee. From the resulting free kick, South China cleared.

KOWLOON F.C. v. H.K. POLICE.

This game was played on the Railway ground and ended in favour of Kowloon by the only goal scored.

The teams lined out as under:—
Kowloon F.C.: G. Angus, Gillott and C. Pile; Hedley, Downman and East; Eastman, McKelvie, Moss, Simpson and Miles.

H.K. Police: Clarke; Wynne and Howarth; Oram, McGreavy and Jessop; Gowans, Cornwell, Fraser, Dr. Valentine and Bentley.

Clarke and Oram made their first appearances for the Police this season. Clarke in goal showed his old form and kept the score down.

The Police forced a corner and Kowloon clearing soon transferred McKelvie testing Clarke with a fast shot. The Police returned to the attack and for a time Kowloon defence had a busy time. Kowloon now took up the attack but faulty shooting prevented any score. Half-time, no score.

Kowloon took the lead early in the second half. McKelvie shot hard and Clarke stopped the shot but failed to hold it and McKelvie, following up sent the ball into the net.

The Police then went out to level up and forced a couple of fruitless corners.

Kowloon put on pressure in the closing minutes but Clarke gave a brilliant display in the Police goal and prevented any further score.

Result:—
Kowloon F.C. 1
H.K. Police 0

H.K.F.C. v. ROYAL NAVY.

This game was played on the H.K.F.C. ground and ended in favour of the Navy, after extra time, by the odd goal in five.

H.K.F.C. had a two goals lead in the first half and lost the lead through a penalty kick.

The line out was as under:—

H.K.F.C.: G. Rodger, Wallington and Bishop; Gilchrist, Stewart and Watson; Alexander, Bell, McBride, Scott and Coppin.

Navy: Bogle; McGregor and Jones; Timberlake, Tilley and Watts; Egan, Cartwright, Potts, Stephenson and Dickinson.

The Navy were not at full strength owing to the absence from port of H.M.S. Suffolk. The Club attacked early in the game but could make little headway against Jones and McGregor.

Coppin got away on the left and Bell meeting the centre sent the ball into the net to give the H.K.F.C. the lead.

From the centre kick, the Navy set up a strong attack but Rodger was safe in goal. The Club were down the Navy attack and from a swinging pass by Stewart, Coppin went down the wing, his shot hit the bar and Bell taking the rebound sent the ball into the net, the Club now leading by two clear goals.

The Navy reduced the lead through Tilley who took the ball from a clearance by Rodger and sent it into the net.

Half-time: H.K.F.C. 2, Navy 1.

From the restart, the Navy made strenuous efforts to get on terms with the Club, but Rodgers was in good form between the sticks. During a raid a Club defender handled close in and McGregor put the ball into the net from the spot kick, after the penalty was ordered to be retaken.

Full time arrived with the score two goals all.

Extra time was played and during the second portion, Potts beat Rodger with a well placed shot.

Result:—

CHINESE ATHLETIC v. S.L.I.

All roads led to the North Point Stadium on Saturday to see the game between the Athletic and S.L.I. After ninety minutes play the teams survive to meet another day, the score being one goal all, after extra time.

The line out was as under:—
Chinese Athletic: Chan Sik Pui; Leung Yui Tung and Lam Yik Ying; Ho Ka Kwang, Wong Shui Wah and Ho Choi Yin; Ng Kum Chuen, Tso Kwai Shing, Wong Pak Chong, Suen Kum Shun and Chan Kwong Lu.

S.L.I.: Hall; Huish and Hayward; Froth, West and Harris; Rayson, Knapp, Earley, Bewley-Bull and Butcher.

The S.L.I. at once made for the Athletic goal and Chan had to stop a hot one from Bewley-Bull. A visit to the other end found Tso Kwai Shing well placed but he shot wide.

End to end play was the order, the defence being too good for the attack. Before the interval, Rayson sent in a hard shot and ball rebounding from the post was met by Bewley-Bull who sent into the net to give the S.L.I. the lead.

Half-time: S.L.I. 1, Chinese Athletic 0.

The second half opened with the Athletic attacking but the S.L.I. backs were playing safe. The S.L.I. forced a corner but Earley headed over from the flag kick. Keeping up the pressure, the S.L.I. had hard luck in not registering again.

Suen Kum Shun sent over to the right and a quick return by Ng Kum Chuen was met by Suen who beat Hall with a first timer.

With the score one all, the S.L.I. put on extra pressure but the home defence held out and full time arrived with the score one all.

Extra time was played. The Athletic had a good opening when awarded a free kick just outside the penalty area but the S.L.I. got the ball away. In the closing portion of the extra time, the S.L.I. had much the better of the exchanges but the Athletic defence held out until the final whistle sounded.

JUNIOR SHIELD REPLAY.

S.L.I. RES. v. NAVY RES.

This replay took place at Caroline Hill, the S.L.I. winning by three goals to one. The S.L.I. missed a penalty.

Play was fast in the opening exchanges but inaccuracy in front of goal prevented any score. Carter was clever defender for the Navy, tackling and kicking with great judgment.

Almost from the centre kick the ball was in the net. Guest took a pass from Mead and running through the defence beat Wyatt with a fast cross shot. After this reverse the Navy put on pressure and Morgan slipped the ball to Kesby who went in and beat Verrier with a fast low shot.

The Navy took up the attack from the centre kick and Ford was wide from close range. Denmead was sent in but was dropped heavily inside the area. Mead took the spot kick and Wyatt dropped on to the ball. A struggle followed and the Navy kicked the ball clear.

The S.L.I. were soon back again and Guest again beat Wyatt.

A corner to the S.L.I. was fruitless. With the Navy attacking, their backs were up near the half-way line when the ball came out from a clearance by Fothergill and Spanwick mis-kicking let in Denmead who raced away and beat Wyatt, making the game safe for the S.L.I.

The Navy had several rallies but failed to press home their attack the final whistle sounding with the S.L.I. winners by three goals to one.

CHINESE ATHLETIC "B" v. EWO CHINESE.

This game was played at the Stadium, the Athletic "B" winning by the only goal scored. Ewo put up a great fight in their first shield game and by playing the strongest Athletic junior team to a goal deserve great credit. Before the interval, Lee Fong scored.

There was no scoring in the second half although Ewo had had luck on a couple of visits to the Athletic goal.

Result:—
Chinese Athletic "B" 1
Ewo, Chinese 0

KOWLOON F.C. RES. v. R.A. RESERVES.

This game was played on the Railway ground, Kowloon winning by two clear goals. Attacking early in the game, the visitors failed to follow up their midfield advantage. Kowloon soon got into their stride and with a little steadiness in front of goal would have scored. Before the interval, Cotton scored for Kowloon.

Half-time: Kowloon Res. 1, R.A. Res. 0.

The R.A. opened the second half by a strong attack but failed through weakness in front of goal. Before the final whistle sounded Cotton again scored for Kowloon.

Result:—
Kowloon F.C. Res. 2

H.K.F.C. RES. v. EASTERN F.C.

This game was played on the Hong Kong F.C. ground, Eastern winning by two clear goals. Sabhan scored both goals for Eastern.

Good play by the home half-backs held the visitors forwards but the home attack was weak. Towards the close of the first half, the Club forwards were better together yet they failed to pierce the visitors defence.

The Club tried hard to wipe out the half-time deficit but failed. Although having the better of midfield exchanges they could not get the ball into the net.

LOCAL CRICKET.

A MID-WEEK CENTURY.

KOWLOON'S FINE WIN.

The most interesting of the week-end matches was the Kowloon-Hong Kong fixtures played in King's Park, and the victory of the Kowloon men has placed them in a very strong position for championship honours. They have now only one more match to play and should they win it, will hold the shield for a year.

In the second division, the Hong Kong Cricket Club were fortunate to beat the Craigengower Cricket Club. They now head the league table with 18 points. The Police are second with two points dropped out of the same number of matches played.

LEAGUE-DIVISION I.

K.C.C. v. H.K.C.C.

In the most important of the afternoon matches the Kowloon Cricket Club defeated the H.K.C.C. by 8 wickets at King's Park. Duckitt (31) and Batger (19) started the innings for the visitors and Mitchell, going in first wicket down, helped with 10. Then there was a collapse, though Dowler, going in late, made a gallant effort to pull the game round. He made 14 runs but the remaining two batsmen failed and the side were all out for 108 runs. Mr. Extras contributed a useful dozen.

Of the four Kowloon bowlers tried, Lee (3 for 24) and Goodwin (4 for 28) were the most successful.

"Teddy" Fincher and Ramsay opened well for the K.C.C. making 33 and 39 respectively and although the next man was out for a single, Zimmerman played good cricket for 39 runs and 4 wickets were down for 110 when stumps were drawn. Duckitt took 2 wickets for 17 and Batger 1 for 7.

The scores were:—

UNIVERSITY v. THE ARMY.

The undergraduates did well to beat the Army by 10 runs at Pokfulam. It was a low scoring match and the bowling of both sides was good.

The home team batted first and only made 65 of which Gittins contributed 30. Fry returned the capital analysis of 5 for 12 while Reynolds had 3 for 21.

The soldiers started cautiously but after 55 runs had been put together for the loss of 5 wickets, a rot set in and the remaining five fell for the addition of only 11 runs. McFarlan was top-scorer with 22, while Wolfe-Barry made 12 and Reynolds 10.

DIVISION II.

H.K.C.C. v. C.C.C.

By snatching full points from the Craigengower Cricket Club after the latter looked like winning, the Hong Kong Cricket Club now displace the Police Recreation Club at the top of the League table.

The game was played on the Club ground and the visitors batted first. Open the innings, Leonard made 83 in fine style, but the rest of his side failed badly against the bowling of Way who took 6 wickets for 18 runs, doing the hat-trick in the bargain.

In spite of a good innings of 50 by Mackenzie, the Club fared none too well and when the last man went in, they need some 30 runs to win. The two were, however, equal to the occasion, and knocked off the required runs with some minutes to spare. For the Navy, Comdr. Baker took 5 wickets for 80 runs.

The first two Civil Service wickets fell cheaply but Baker settled down and hit up 41 before being bowled. Balfour made 20 and Richardson and Evans 14 each.

For the Navy, Comdr. Baker took 5 wickets for 80 runs.

RECREIO v. UNIVERSITY.

In a low scoring match at King's Park, the club de recreio were fortunate in beating the University by the narrow margin of 12 runs.

The University batted first but were soon skittled out by D. Xavier (5 for 37) and Sousa (5 for 14). Normanbhoy (14) and Loke (10) were the only batsmen to run into double figures for the University, who were all out for only 42 runs.

Although the Portuguese lads got their opponents out for such a low score, they had to fight tooth and nail for runs—and, they only managed 54. It was a very close game and thoroughly enjoyable. F. J. Remedios made 19, while Guterres who opened the innings got 16.

Chan Fook (16 for 31) was the most successful bowler for the visitors.

This league match was played at Soekun Po on Wednesday and in spite of the fact that the Sappers run up the big total of 295 runs for 9 wickets, they could only draw with the R.A.O.C.

A feature of the R.E. & S. innings was an excellent 108 not out by L/C Penny, who treated the bowling unmercifully and hit 11 fours and two sixes. Sergt. Johnson made 37 not out while Lt. Macdonald played good cricket for 32 runs.

Col. Robertson (49) and L/C Morgan (39) played well for the R.A.O.C. who were 135 for 9 wickets when time was called. For the R.E. & S., Deavell took 3 wickets for 16 runs and Q.M.S. Leppard 2 for 12.

CRAIGENGOWER C.C. v. VOLUNTEERS.

The Craigengower Cricket Club entertained the Volunteers in an all-day game yesterday and won easily.

The Volunteers batted first but they were unfortunate in coming up against Omar who was bowling at the top of his form. They were all out for 88 runs of which Batger made 18. Omar's analysis was 8 wickets for 24 runs.

The Valley team run up the big total for 221 for 9 wickets declared. H. L. Lam made 87 in fine style while Omar put together 30 rapidly. For the Volunteers Reid took 4 wickets for 73 runs while Mitchell had 3 for 40.

MORE PREHISTORIC MEN FOUND.

DISCOVERY LINKED WITH THE PEPING MAN.

[United Press.]

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 9. Mr. Alden Mason, curator of the American section of the University of Pennsylvania Museum, has announced that a university expedition operating near Point Barrow, Alaska, had found skeleton remains giving evidence of the descent of man.

The remains are those of an early man who crossed from Asia to America, along a narrow strip of land bridging the Behring Sea at that time.

Marked difference from the Eskimo is observed in these remains, indicating that they are from a remote age. They are of the Thule type of culture.

All the bodies were buried in skins of polar bears, deer and moose. Because they were frozen, the bodies were in an excellent state of preservation.

The discovery is linked with other recent finds including the skull of the "Peking man" and similar scientific booty in Asia which tended to confirm the view that Asia may be considered as the cradle of the human race. In the present instance, scientists believe that they have stumbled upon fresh evidence to confirm the theory that prehistoric man went from Asia to the other continents by land connections which subsequently sank into the sea.

Mr. Alfred Hopsen, director of the University of Pennsylvania expedition, said that all the characteristics of the bodies at Point Barrow tend to link these remains with those of early Siberian man.

AMERICA'S INDUSTRY SOUND.

FINANCIAL HURRICANE NOW OVER.

LONDON, Feb. 9. On his return here from America Vicecount Rothermere, who has been analysing conditions there after the recent stock-market crash, writes in the Sunday Dispatch that the financial and commercial foundations of the United States have survived without damage the greatest speculative crisis any country has ever passed.

"Now that the hurricane is over," he says, "the fundamental soundness and vitality of the United States are rapidly obliterating the force of the temporary havoc."

Unshaken Confidence.

"I believe," he goes on, "that there are no safer industrial investments in the world than leading securities. America is sound because American industry is sound. The nation as a whole has, and is entitled to have, unshakable confidence. The enduring prosperity and high competency of the Federal Government of the United States, as well as the underlying stability of industries, was well illustrated during the economic emergency last autumn, when only a few telephone calls for the President at the White House were made. An executive committee of 20 men, each the head of a great industry, in 10 minutes had arranged a programme for £2,000,000,000 constructive expenditure. Such are the proved advantages of having at the head of the nation's political affairs business men like Mr. Hoover and Andrew Mellon."

THE CHINA AIRMAIL CONTRACT.

MR. SUN FO'S DENIAL.

When interviewed by Reuter last week in Nanking on the subject of the contract between China Airways Federal Inc. and the China National Aviation Corporation, Mr. Sun Fo, the Minister of Railways, who is a member of the State Council and who was recently connected with the latter company, denied explicitly, on behalf of the National Government, that it had cancelled the aviation agreement.

Mr. Sun Fo stated that the recommendation to cancel the contract had been submitted recently to the State Council by Mr. Wang Po Chun, the Minister of Communications and president of the China National Aviation Corporation.

At its regular meeting this morning, Mr. Sun Fo continued, the State Council decided to refer the matter to the Foreign Office and to the Ministry of Communications, instructing the two Ministries to negotiate with the American corporation with a view to the revision of the existing contract, which, according to the decision of Mr. Wang Po Chun, has been found unworkable in certain respects.

According to the decision of the National Government, Mr. Sun Fo added, no cancellation of the present contract was contemplated pending negotiations for its revision. The persistent report that this contract had already been cancelled by the National Government, he concluded, was therefore erroneous.

U.S. WILLINGNESS TO REVISE.

Nanking, February 10.—Mr. Sun Fo, Minister of Railways and former President of the China National Aviation Corporation, received today an official communication, dated January 9, 1930, from Mr. C. M. Keys, a financial and industrial leader in New York, who controls or manages a number of manufacturing and financial concerns besides being president of the Curtiss Aeroplane and Motor Co. of which the China Airways Federal Inc. is one of its affiliated interests, stating that Mr. Keys was "perfectly willing" to discuss the revision of the Sino-American aviation contract with regard to terms of compensation.

Mr. Keys' communication was in reply to a letter from Mr. Sun Fo, dated November 13, last year, almost a month before the Minister of Railways resigned from the presidency of the China National Aviation Corporation. This communication from Mr. Keys is of especially interest at this moment in view of the decision of the National Government to revise the existing contract between the American and Chinese aeroplane interests.
